

Engelbrektsloppet 2020 – Canceled due to lack of snow

So far, the winter have been extremely warm in Norberg with temperatures way above the normal conditions. Therefore, we've been forced to take the decision to cancel all our races during February 7-9th 2020. Until today we are lack of natural snow and there are no cold weather with snow fall at sight in any weather forecasts, in enough time before the event. We want to inform all our participants as soon as possible.

Totally we've only had eight days of continues cold temperatures, for snow production, this season which is very unusual. The total volume of artificial snow isn't enough to run the races in a shortened course of 15 km. All though we've used all our available resources it isn't enough this very warm winter.

As an event organizer, of course, it feels terrible and we do feel sorry for all our participants that have been doing all the preparations to attend at our races.

You have following options to choose from, see below.

- 50% refund of registration fee (according to rules of Swedish Ski Association regarding canceled race due to lack of snow)
- Transfer your registration to our races 12-14th of February 2021.
- Donate your registration fee to our snow fund. (We work continuously with improvements of our artificial snow production capacity)

For you who participates in A Swedish Classic- The Half, The Women's, and The Short and have chosen Engelbrektsloppet can complete your Classic during our races 2021 no matter which race the ski event should have been in the sequence.

If you have bought our bus package you don't have to do anything. It will be refunded with 100%.
